Your Sade Sati Status Today

Sunita, this section gives you a clear view of your Sade Sati timing and Saturn's present influence.

Sade Sati is not active for you today. Your most recent cycle ran from 23 July 2002 to 10 September 2009. Its rising phase lasted from 23 July 2002 to 26 May 2005.

The peak phase then ran from 26 May 2005 to 16 July 2007, with a first touch from 6 September 2004 to 13 January 2005. The setting phase followed from 16 July 2007 to 10 September 2009.

Your next cycle begins on 31 May 2032 and ends on 13 July 2039. Its rising phase begins on 31 May 2032, so preparation can be gradual rather than urgent.

No Kantaka Shani or Ashtama Shani window falls within the coming twelve years.

Saturn is now in Pisces, the 9th house from your Cancer Lagna and the 9th house from your Moon, where it has been since 29 March 2025; it moves to Aries on 3 June 2027. From the Moon, this places emphasis on disciplined beliefs, long-term direction, teachers, travel and responsibilities connected with purpose.

Because Saturn is classically demanding from the Moon, steady effort and realistic planning are especially valuable now. The strong Sarva Ashtakavarga support of the ninth house helps you build patiently, even while Saturn asks for maturity in these areas.

Sade Sati is the passage of Saturn through the sign immediately before your natal Moon, the sign containing your natal Moon, and the sign immediately after it. These three stages are traditionally called rising, peak and setting, and together they describe one extended Saturn cycle.

Your Cycle, Phase by Phase

AT A GLANCE

Your next Sade Sati begins on 31 May 2032. Its central lesson is to simplify commitments, protect rest and health, and build steadier foundations before Saturn reaches your Moon.

Rising phase — Saturn in Gemini, 31 May 2032 to 13 July 2034

Saturn will be 12th from your Cancer Moon and in the 12th house from your Cancer Lagna. This phase carries a weak SAV grade for the 12th house. Saturn crosses natal Jupiter, making expenses, sleep, retreat, foreign connections and conscious letting go central themes.

The first movement into Gemini on 31 May 2032 opens the cycle. During this phase, Mars/Mercury runs through 6 October 2032, followed by Mars/Ketu until 4 March 2033, Mars/Venus until 4 May 2034, and Mars/Sun through the rising-to-peak transition. Jupiter offers relief in Capricorn from 31 May 2032 to 12 August 2032, again from 23 October 2032 to 18 March 2033, and in Pisces from 28 March 2034 to 13 July 2034.

Peak phase — Saturn in Cancer, 13 July 2034 to 27 August 2036

Saturn will pass over your natal Moon in Cancer, remaining in the 1st house from your Lagna. The 1st house has a weak SAV grade, so the emphasis falls on mind, health, vitality and self-image. The dasha period running around September 2034 is Mars/Sun, ending 2034-09-09, Mars/Moon runs until 10 April 2035, and Rahu/Rahu follows until 21 December 2037, overlapping the opening of the setting phase.

Jupiter supports you in Pisces through 6 April 2035 and in Taurus from 15 April 2036 to 27 August 2036. These intervals are useful for guidance, perspective, networks and measured renewal.

Setting phase — Saturn in Leo, 27 August 2036 to 13 July 2039

Saturn will occupy the 2nd house from both your Lagna and Moon, with a weak SAV grade for that house. Family responsibilities, money management and speech require patience, structure and restraint. Jupiter brings relief in Taurus from 27 August 2036 to 9 September 2036, 17 November 2036 to 26 April 2037, and 7 October 2038 to 3 March 2039, with another supportive interval from 2 June 2039 to 13 July 2039.

WHAT TO DO

Begin preparing well before 31 May 2032: strengthen savings, simplify possessions, establish reliable sleep and health routines, and practise calm, deliberate communication.

Looking Back: Your Previous Sade Sati

AT A GLANCE

Your most recent completed Sade Sati ran from 23 July 2002 to 10 September 2009, when you were approximately 24 to 31 years old. It is worth revisiting as a personal record of how Saturn asks you to mature through responsibility, restructuring and sustained effort.

The cycle began with the rising phase, from 23 July 2002 to 26 May 2005. The first touch of the peak phase came from 6 September 2004 to 13 January 2005, before the peak settled in from 26 May 2005 to 16 July 2007. The cycle closed through the setting phase, from 16 July 2007 to 10 September 2009.

At those ages, life may have asked you to become more self-reliant: accepting heavier duties, making practical choices about work or home, relocating, or re-defining important relationships. Health routines and financial discipline may also have become more significant. Rather than judging the period only by whether it felt easy or difficult, notice what it required you to take seriously and what became stronger because of that attention.

As you remember those seven years, ask yourself: what changed first, what demanded the greatest patience, and which decisions continued to shape your life afterward? Your answers form a useful personal map of Saturn's rhythm—how pressure becomes structure, and how maturity develops through steady choices.

Dhaiya: The Shorter Saturn Windows

Kantaka Shani

Your Kantaka Shani window ran from 4 August 2012 to 2 November 2014, with Saturn in Libra, the 4th sign from your Cancer Moon. From your Cancer Lagna, this was Saturn's transit through the 4th house, bringing focus to home, property, domestic responsibilities and peace of mind.

This period may have required practical adjustments around living arrangements, family duties or property matters. Its emphasis was on creating steadier foundations while managing emotional pressure with patience.

Ashtama Shani

Your first Ashtama Shani window ran from 29 April 2022 to 12 July 2022, with Saturn in Aquarius. From your Cancer Lagna, Aquarius is the 8th house, linking this demanding period with sudden change, health awareness and shared financial responsibilities.

Your second Ashtama Shani window ran from 17 January 2023 to 29 March 2025, again with Saturn in Aquarius, the 8th house from your Lagna. This longer phase called for careful handling of joint finances, insurance, taxes and commitments, while encouraging disciplined attention to health and resilience during transitions.

These dhaiya periods are complete, and no dhaiya falls in the present span. Your next major Saturn timing is covered in the cycle discussion.

Jupiter's Relief Windows

Jupiter relieves the Moon when it travels through the 2nd, 5th, 7th, 9th or 11th house from the Moon. During your next Sade Sati, these passages offer practical openings for support, perspective and constructive progress.

- ♦ 31 May 2032 to 12 August 2032: During the rising phase, Jupiter is in Capricorn, the 7th house from the Moon. Cooperation, guidance and helpful alliances become easier to access.
- ♦ 23 October 2032 to 18 March 2033: During the rising phase, Jupiter returns to Capricorn, the 7th house from the Moon. Relationship support and wise counsel can steady important decisions.
- ♦ 28 March 2034 to 13 July 2034: During the rising phase, Jupiter is in Pisces, the 9th house from the Moon. Faith, learning, mentors and long-range understanding receive encouragement.

- ♦ 13 July 2034 to 6 April 2035: During the peak phase, Jupiter remains in Pisces, the 9th house from the Moon. Inner meaning and trusted guidance help you handle responsibilities with greater perspective.
- ♦ 15 April 2036 to 27 August 2036: During the peak phase, Jupiter is in Taurus, the 11th house from the Moon. Networks, gains, fulfilment of aims and supportive friendships can strengthen.
- ♦ 27 August 2036 to 9 September 2036: During the setting phase, Jupiter remains in Taurus, the 11th house from the Moon. Practical support and beneficial connections continue briefly.
- ♦ 17 November 2036 to 26 April 2037: During the setting phase, Jupiter returns to Taurus, the 11th house from the Moon. Assistance through community and steady gains becomes available again.
- ♦ 7 October 2038 to 3 March 2039: During the setting phase, Jupiter is in Leo, the 2nd house from the Moon. Finances, family support and confidence in your values can improve.
- ♦ 2 June 2039 to 13 July 2039: During the setting phase, you receive a final Jupiter relief through the 2nd house from the Moon, supporting financial steadiness, family cohesion and clear priorities.

The remaining stretches of the cycle carry no Jupiter relief.

Your Natal Moon & Saturn — How You Carry the Cycle

AT A GLANCE

Your Moon is strong and well-supported, giving you emotional resilience through Saturn's cycles. Saturn is comparatively less strong, so discipline is learned through steady effort rather than coming automatically.

Your Moon is in Cancer in the 1st house, its own sign, in Ashlesha nakshatra, pada 3. It shares the 1st house with Venus and receives Ketu's 5th aspect. This makes you sensitive, perceptive and deeply responsive to emotional undercurrents, while Venus adds warmth and a wish for harmony. Ketu's influence can also make you periodically withdraw, observe silently or question what once felt secure.

The Moon is your Lagna lord and is placed in the 1st house, giving it an important role in your identity and vitality. Its own-sign dignity is a major protective factor: even when circumstances feel heavy, you can recover by returning to familiar rhythms, trusted relationships and emotional honesty.

Saturn occupies the 2nd house in Leo with Mars. It rules your 7th and 8th houses and is described as the weakest planet in the chart's strength ranking, so Saturn's lessons tend to arrive through patience, restraint and gradual consolidation. The 2nd house itself has weak Ashtakavarga support, making speech, family responsibilities and financial steadiness areas where careful choices matter; your money temperament benefits from measured timing and clear priorities.

At the same time, Saturn's conjunction with the yogakaraka Mars forms a Raja yoga listed in your chart. This gives the Saturn principle constructive potential: sustained effort, responsibility and courage can turn pressure into authority over time.

Overall, your strong Moon softens Sade Sati considerably. You may feel periods of emotional weight deeply, but you are not easily emptied by them. Your resilience grows when Saturn's demands are met through consistency, calm speech, responsible financial habits and dependable routines.

Your Dasha During the Cycle

AT A GLANCE

Your next Sade Sati begins on 31 May 2032, and its experience will be shaped first by Mars periods, then by Rahu. The most constructive support comes from Mars as yogakaraka, while Mercury, Ketu and Rahu require steadier judgment.

Your present Moon Mahadasha runs until 10 April 2028, with Moon/Venus continuing until 10 October 2027 and Moon/Sun following until 10 April 2028. The next cycle begins during Mars/Mercury, which runs from 10 October 2031 to 6 October 2032. Mars/Mercury covers the rising phase from 31 May 2032 to 6 October 2032. Mars is your yogakaraka and supports purposeful action; Mercury adds pressure through its functional role and its combust dignity.

- ♦ Mars/Ketu: 6 October 2032 to 4 March 2033, rising phase. Ketu can make priorities inward and less predictable, so simplify commitments.
- ♦ Mars/Venus: 4 March 2033 to 4 May 2034, rising phase. Venus supports the 4th and 11th houses and is a friend of Saturn, bringing help through relationships, networks and practical comforts.

- ♦ Mars/Sun: 4 May 2034 to 9 September 2034, spanning rising and peak phases. Sun rules the 2nd house and may add pressure around resources, speech and responsibilities.
- ♦ Mars/Moon: 9 September 2034 to 10 April 2035, peak phase. Moon is your Lagna lord in its own sign and is a friend of Saturn, strengthening emotional resilience while keeping personal choices central.
- ♦ Rahu/Rahu: 10 April 2035 to 21 December 2037, spanning peak and setting phases. Rahu adds pressure through uncertainty and changing priorities.
- ♦ Rahu/Jupiter: 21 December 2037 to 15 May 2040, covering the setting phase until 13 July 2039. Jupiter is a friend of Saturn and supports the 6th and 9th houses, helping you turn lessons into capability.

WHAT TO DO

Build discipline during Mars/Mercury, protect clarity during Mars/Ketu, and use the Mars/Venus period to strengthen supportive alliances before the peak phase.

Work, Money, Family & Health Through the Cycle

AT A GLANCE

Your next Sade Sati runs from 31 May 2032 to 13 July 2039. Build strong routines and financial reserves before it begins; the cycle will reward disciplined choices, especially in work and long-term planning.

Work

During the rising phase, from 31 May 2032 to 13 July 2034, Saturn moves through Gemini, the 12th house from both Lagna and Moon. This favours behind-the-scenes preparation, restructuring and careful management of responsibilities. The peak phase, from 13 July 2034 to 27 August 2036, brings Saturn through Cancer, the 1st house from both, asking you to carry authority steadily while protecting your energy.

The setting phase, from 27 August 2036 to 13 July 2039, places Saturn in Leo, the 2nd house from both. Work becomes closely tied to income, reputation and the value of your experience. Jupiter provides relief in Capricorn from 31 May to 12 August 2032 and from 23 October 2032 to 18 March 2033, and again in Pisces from 28 March 2034 to 6 April 2035.

Money

The 12th-house rising phase calls for controlled spending, especially around commitments, travel or family obligations. The 1st-house peak phase supports rebuilding financial confidence through consistent decisions rather than quick gains. In the 2nd-house setting phase, protect savings and keep agreements, taxes and shared finances carefully documented.

Family

Saturn's movement through the 12th, 1st and 2nd houses can make family duties more visible and require mature communication. During the 2nd-house setting phase, speech and household priorities deserve particular care. Jupiter in Taurus, the 11th house from both, brings relief from 15 April to 27 August 2036, and again from 27 August to 9 September 2036 and 17 November 2036 to 26 April 2037.

Health

The rising phase favours rest, practical scheduling and attention to recovery. The peak phase asks you to pace yourself and avoid carrying every responsibility alone; the setting phase benefits from regular routines and moderation. Astrology does not replace medical care, so seek qualified guidance for any health concern.

WHAT TO DO

Begin strengthening savings, simplify obligations and establish sustainable sleep, movement and medical routines well before 31 May 2032.

What to Do Now

AT A GLANCE

Sade Sati is not active now. Your next cycle begins on 31 May 2032, so the best use of this period is disciplined preparation rather than worry.

- ♦ By 31 December 2027, create a cash reserve, reduce avoidable debt, and organise long-term savings. This is especially wise while Saturn moves through Pisces from 8 October 2026 to 3 June 2027 and Aries from 3 June 2027 to 20 October 2027, both demanding from the Moon.
- ♦ By 31 October 2028, complete a full health review, establish consistent sleep and movement routines, and address small concerns early. Saturn's extended Aries passage runs from 23 February 2028 to 8 August 2029, making steady daily structure valuable.
- ♦ By 31 March 2030, strengthen one practical skill that improves your independence or earning capacity. Saturn's favourable Taurus span from 17 April 2030 to 31 May 2032 can then support durable gains and useful professional connections.
- ♦ By 31 December 2031, clarify family responsibilities, partnership expectations, and the boundaries around your time and money. Clear agreements will be more supportive than carrying obligations silently.
- ♦ By 31 March 2032, simplify possessions, paperwork, insurance, and recurring commitments. The next cycle's rising phase begins on 31 May 2032 and continues to 13 July 2034, so a lighter structure will help you respond calmly.

Jupiter offers a helpful preparation window in Capricorn from 5 March 2032 to 12 August 2032, favourable from both Lagna and Moon, before the cycle settles into its longer rhythm. Your strong third, sixth, ninth, tenth, and eleventh houses favour courage, skills, service, learning, career effort, and supportive networks.

WHAT TO DO

Begin with the financial reserve and health routine, then build skills and simplify obligations before 2032.

15

Remedies for Sade Sati

AT A GLANCE

Begin a steady Saturn-and-Moon practice on 8 October 2026 and continue it through the next cycle, especially from 31 May 2032. Consistency, humility and care for your emotional balance will serve you better than occasional intensive remedies.

Mantra

- ◆ From 8 October 2026, recite Om Sham Shanicharaya Namah 108 times on Saturdays. Continue through Moon/Venus until 10 October 2027, and renew it for the rising phase from 31 May 2032 to 13 July 2034, when Saturn moves through Gemini, the 12th house from both your Lagna and Moon.
- ◆ From 8 October 2026, recite Om Som Somaya Namah 108 times on Mondays. Maintain this through the Moon Mahadasha ending 10 April 2028, giving special attention to the natal Moon in Cancer and the approaching Sade Sati cycle.

Charity and Service

- ◆ From 8 October 2026, offer practical help to elderly, poor or physically burdened people each Saturday. Continue throughout Moon/Venus until 10 October 2027, particularly while Saturn remains in Pisces, the 9th house from both Lagna and Moon, until 3 June 2027, then in Aries, the 10th house, until 10 October 2027.

Discipline

- ◆ From 8 October 2026, keep a simple weekly routine: rise and sleep consistently, complete duties before leisure, and review speech and spending every Saturday. This supports the natal Moon in the 1st house and Saturn joined Mars in the 2nd house, and should continue through the next Mars Mahadasha beginning 10 April 2028.

Gemstones

Moon, Mars and Jupiter may be considered. Because gemstone suitability is individual and Mars is in a Manglik position from the Lagna, Moon and Venus, consult a qualified astrologer before wearing any stone.

16

Closing Guidance & Blessing

Closing Guidance

Sunita, Sade Sati is not active today, giving you valuable space to prepare with steadiness rather than urgency. Your strongest support comes from a self-possessed Moon in Cancer, a strong tenth house, and a powerful eleventh house, helping you combine emotional intelligence with practical achievement.

The most important date ahead is 31 May 2032, when the next cycle begins as Saturn enters Gemini, the 12th house from both your Lagna and Moon. This marks the rising phase, and Saturn remains in Gemini through 2032; the period calls for disciplined handling of rest, expenses, and inner renewal. Before then, Jupiter's movement into Leo, the 2nd house from both Lagna and Moon, on 31 October 2026 offers a constructive focus on resources, family values, and measured speech during its favourable passage. Your Moon Mahadasha continues until 10 April 2028, followed by Mars Mahadasha, bringing your yogakaraka Mars more fully into the story.

Trust the resilience already present in your chart, and let consistency guide each decision. May wisdom, protection, and inner peace accompany you through every coming phase.
